

Black Indians: An American Story

Narrated by James Earl Jones, this award winning film explores the past and present interactions of the African American and American Indian communities. The film focuses on the dynamics that brought the two groups together in a common bond and their evolving relationships over the past 300 years.

2:00 PM, Sunday, November 9, 2008

Film Showing & Discussion

Free & Open to the Public

at

The C.H. Nash Museum at Chucalissa,
1987 Indian Village Drive

(near T.O. Fuller State Park)

For more information:
901-785-3160 or chucalissa@memphis.edu
www.cas.memphis.edu/chucalissa/