Policeman's 23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want,
His comforting hand reduces fear to naught;
He makes me walk through streets of crime,
But He gives me courage and peace of mind*

*He leads by still waters in the path I trod,
And He says in Romans I'm a "minister of God."
He leads in righteousness as he restores my soul,
For His name sake he keeps me whole.*

*When I walk through death's valley, right up to the Door, I will fear no evil, for He comforts me more;
For Thou art with me every step of the way,
As Thy rod and Thy staff protect me each day.*

*He prepares a table, especially for me ,
As I work daily among life's enemies;
He gives me authority to uphold the law,
And He anoints my position in the midst of it all.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me,
Each day of my life through eternity;
As I long to hear Him say, "Well done.....,"
When I lay down my life, my badge, and my gun.*
